About me

I'm an independent young woman, always ready to start new adventures and challenge myself. I'm a hard worker, I'm really determined and if I set a goal, I'll do whatever it takes to reach it. I have good leadership qualities and I'm good at organizing work in team.

I love travelling, meeting new people and experiencing new cultures.

Sport has always been a constant in my life: I love snowboarding, jogging, training in the gym and horseback riding.
